

Journal of Social Work in Developing Societies: Special Issue on COVID-19 Pandemic: Part 11-Impact on Different Spheres of Life
Vol. 2 No 2, November 2020

Table of Contents

Editor's Note Uzoma O. Okoye	i
Human relationships revisited in the wake of COVID-19: Reflections of a Nigerian social worker Ngozi E. Chukwu	1--6
The facemask: A tool for protection or an instrument for the transmission of COVID-19 in Nigeria? Prince C. Ekoh, Elizabeth O. George, Chigozie J. Ezulike & Uzoma O. Okoye	7-15
The impact of COVID–19 pandemic on the Almajiris in Northern Nigeria and the need for social work intervention Akpom Chinyere	16-22
Impact of Covid-19 lockdown on the socio-psychological wellbeing of children: A personal experience in Nigeria Chukwuma F. Ugwu	23-28
COVID-19 in our communities: When caution was thrown to the winds Chinwe U. Nnama-Okechukwu & Patience, N. Chukwuka	29-35
Commentary: COVID-19 pandemic from medical students' perspective in Nigeria Abdullahi, A. Tunde & Oluwanawumi Dawodu	36-38